How to Make a very Little Money go a Long Way

Nobody wants to go without the comforts and the pleasures of life, yet everybody wants to keep down the cost of living, and the answer is SCHMITT & STEINHARDT'S. This is not a bargain store filled with broken-up stocks. We aim to have always well rounded stocks of every grade of merchandise that is worth having to make certain of service for all who come here. But just now this is a store very full of bargains and in the best sense of that much abused word. There never was a time when such a variety of desirable and useful merchandise could be bought for so little money. You must come early if you want to be the fortunate one! These bargains will not stay here long at these prices!

Gems In Verse

TEARS.

THERE be three hundred different ways and more
Of speaking, but of weeping only one.
And that one way the wide world o'er and o'er
Is known by all, though it is taught by none.
No man is master of this ancient lore
And no man pupil. Every simpleton
Can weep as well as every sage. The man
Does it no better than the infant can.
The first thing all men learn is how to weep.
Yet understand they not each other's speech.
But tears are neither Latin nor yet Greek
Nor prose nor verse. The language that they teach
Is universal. Cleopatra's cheek
They decked with pearls no richer than
Of earth's innumerable mourners fall
Unstudied, yet correctly eloquent.
Tears are the oldest and the commonest
Of all things upon earth, and yet how new
The tale each time told by them! How unbelieved
Were life's hard way without their heavenly dew!
Joy borrows them from Grief. Faith trembles lest
She lose them, even Hope herself smiles through them.
The rainbow they make round her as they fall.
And Death, that cannot weep, sets weeping all.
—Owen Meredith.

PROVEN by test to "suit you best"—that's the Anvil Herald.

The state will now have at least a brief respite from political strife and turmoil, and can go ahead with its work of material development. The political agitator should take the result of last Saturday's primary as a gentle hint to subside and let the state enjoy its well earned season of political peace.

In the political contest just closed the Anvil Herald did what it could for the cause of good government, and we are satisfied with the result. While it is to be regretted that a man like Joe Dibrell must be sacrificed to the fetish of prohibition, such has been the record of human history and such must continue to stain its pages so long as people follow false doctrine and bow down to the worship of an idol.

THE prohibitionists will feign much satisfaction at the result of Saturday's primary because some of their men won out, but the disappointment of the campaign is their failure to destroy Colquitt. From their chagrin and disappointment they will arise to the next onslaught with more hatred in their hearts and more venom on their tongues than ever before. Do not make the mistake of supposing the victory is forever won. There are endless fights yet to be fought, and, as before, eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. Let all the friends of freedom stand firm and be prepared for the next move.

FLETCHER DAVIS of the Hondo Anvil Herald will now have to dump his little paragraph on "The demagogue who would revive," etc. We now assign him as his subject for the next three or four weeks the Texas Dry Farming Congress, which meets at Uvalde Aug. 20, 21 and 22.—Uvalde Leader-News. We are strongly inclined to preserve it under a glass case as a future reminder of the good and effective work it did. But battles once fought are afterwards only history—by-gones are by-gones! And while we object to being licked to death by any body we are willing to be worked to death in a good cause any time. Hurrah for the Dry Farming Congress! "Let's go!"

J. C. Greer At Rest.

All that is mortal of J. C. Greer now lies peacefully sleeping in Magnolia Cemetery, beside his son, Arthur, who died several years ago. He died Wednesday morning at his home in Hondo, Texas, after an illness lasting some time. He had not been in good health for several months and gradually went down until Wednesday morning of last week, he calmly and peacefully fell asleep not to awake until the great resurrection morn. Mrs. Greer immediately started for Maryville and arrived here Saturday evening with his body. The funeral was held Sunday evening at the home, the service was conducted by Rev. H. S. Lyle, the pastor of New Providence Church at the home of his brother James M. Greer, after which burial took place in Magnolia Cemetery, a large number of sorrowing friends followed the remains to their last resting place.

Mr. Greer was well and favorably known to a large number of our people. He came to Maryville years ago, and for a number of seasons had charge of Alleghany Springs. He also lived here and was a tailor by trade. About fourteen years ago he moved to Texas on account of the health of his son Arthur, who died some years ago. In his Western home he built up an extensive business and amassed quite a good deal of property. At the time of his death he was passed 58 years of age. He was a man who was greatly beloved and respected by all who knew him. The writer of this article for a number of years lived in the same house with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Greer and we learned to love him very dearly, and feel a deep, personal loss in his death. Mrs. Greer certainly has the sympathy of a host of friends. The waters are deep but the "Grace of God is sufficient."—Maryville (Tenn.) Times, July 26, 1912.

In Memory of Little

Miss Margaret Hutzler.

Dead, yes dead, do we call her.
Margaret, oh! must this be you!
A flower faded and vanished,
A heart that was tender and true.
Gone, yes gone! she has left us.
Margaret, forever we did part.
Joy or sorrow does always come;
Sorrow for us is very hard.
Heaven, Heaven, we wish her,
Wishes yes, not a few.
Sisters and brothers sad and lonely,
And the parents grief-stricken, too.
True, yes true, she was to all.
Smiles forever upon her face.
Sorrowful we looked upon her
E'er was given her resting place.
May you soon forget this grief
And refreshed thoughts fill your Hearts with joy as before.
Farewell, dear and beloved cousin.
In heaven we shall meet again.

Couldn't Walk!

"I used to be troubled with a weakness peculiar to women," writes Mrs. Anna Jones, of Kenny, Ill. "For nearly a year, I could not walk, without holding my sides. I tried several different doctors, but I grew worse. Finally, our druggist advised Cardui for my complaint. I was so thin, my weight was 115. Now, I weigh 163, and I am never sick. I ride horseback as good as ever. I am in fine health at 52 years."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

We have thousands of such letters, and more are arriving daily. Such earnest testimony from those who have tried it, surely proves the great value of this vegetable, tonic medicine, for women.

Cardui relieves women's sufferings, and builds weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a trial. It should help you, for it has helped a million others. It is made from pure, harmless, herb ingredients, which act promptly and surely on the womanly organs. It is a good tonic. Try it! Your druggist sells it.

Strong Healthy Women

If a woman is strong and healthy in a womanly way, motherhood means to her but little suffering. The trouble lies in the fact that the many women suffer from weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism and are unfitted for motherhood. This can be remedied.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Cures the weaknesses and disorders of women. It acts directly on the delicate and important organs concerned in motherhood, making them healthy, strong, vigorous, virile and elastic.

"Favorite Prescription" banishes the indispositions of the period of expectancy and makes baby's advent easy and almost painless. It quickens and vitalizes the feminine organs, and insures a healthy and robust baby. Thousands of women have testified to its marvelous merits.

It Makes Weak Women Strong. It Makes Sick Women Well. Honest druggists do not offer substitutes, and urge them upon you as "just as good." Accept no secret nostrum in place of this non-secret remedy. It contains not a drop of alcohol and not a grain of habit-forming or injurious drugs. Is a pure glyceric extract of healing, native American roots.

ED ANVIL HERALD:

Our butcher, Louis Saathoff after having roped a cow and while trying to put a bell on her the cow turned to run and the rope which was lying along the ground caught and pulled Mr. Saathoff's legs from under him, and he fell upon his right arm, breaking the same just above the wrist. He was taken to Hondo at once where a surgeon set the broken limb and he is now doing as well as could be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bennick of Houston, were here on a visit to their Uncle, Rev. J. F. Koch, and family Mr. Bennick was astonished to find this such a farming country as it is. Men Write and Women Keep.

It is one of the settled facts in the history of love letters that men will write and women will keep. A woman cherishes her love letters as she cherishes her mirror or her powder puff. She carries them in her satchel and reads them in the twopenny tube. She ties them in blue ribbons and perumes them with violet de Parme. The kisses them before she goes to bed and presses them to her bosom where she does her hair up in the morning. She reads them for weeks and knows where to find them for years; and about the only safe thing for a man who has written them can do is to marry her.

Freak Potato.

A freak potato was dug up lately in a Belfast garden. The potato, in the course of its growth had forced its way right through the center of a beef shank bone. It had grown to an enormous size too, and was firmly attached to the bone, bulging out both above and below it.

Following the skyline in an automobile in the Rocky mountains of Colorado is a thrilling pastime. On some of these highways the traveler can "cruise" among the rim-rocks at altitudes which present ever changing vistas of snow-capped summits, dizzy abysses and endless plains.

Where are many such drives in Colorado, but the Skyline drive, completed recently at Canon City, is one of the finest in the state.

The number of such mountain boulevards is increasing. Both state and county authorities are active in the building of good roads, and each year new areas of mountain wilderness are being added to the territory which is accessible to the automobile tourist.

From almost any point along the foothills, from Colorado Springs, Palmer Lake, Denver, Mo-

Buena Vista and Leadville, the latter being the great mining camp of world-wide fame, 10,190 feet above sea level; thence over Tennessee Pass and down through the wonderful canyons of the Eagle and Grand rivers to Glenwood Springs.

At Glenwood the traveler will find a resort that is not excelled in Europe. The waters of the springs are curative and the best of hotel accommodations can be had. In fact, all along this route the hotel accommodations are of the best. From Glenwood Springs the way leads into the Grand valley to Grand Junction in the heart of the fruit section on the Western Slope. From Grand Junction, by way of Dragon and Vernal, the road is clear to Salt Lake City, Utah. A southerly route through Utah takes the traveler to Arizona and the Grand Canyon of the Colorado river. By turning north before reaching Glenwood Springs one can reach Meeker, Steamboat Springs and the vast and practically undeveloped empire of northwestern Colorado.

The state highway commission is planning great circle routes through the scenic wonderland, and as they are completed new opportunities will be created for the automobile tourist. House Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to Section 5, of Article II, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing for cities of more than five thousand (5,000) inhabitants to adopt their charter by a vote of the people.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 5 of Article II of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

Section 5. Cities having more than five thousand (5,000) inhabitants may, by a majority vote of the qualified voters of said city, at an election held for that purpose, adopt or amend their charters, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by the Legislature, and providing that no charter or any ordinance passed under said charter shall contain any provision inconsistent with the Constitution of the State, or of the general laws enacted by the Legislature of this State; said cities may levy, assess and collect such taxes as may be authorized by law or by their charters; but no tax for any purpose shall ever be lawful for any one year, which shall exceed two and one-half per cent of the taxable property of such city, and no debt shall ever be created by any city, unless at the same time provision be made to assess and collect annually a sufficient sum to pay the interest thereon and creating a sinking fund of at least two per cent thereon; and provided further, that no city charter shall be altered, amended or repealed oftener than every two years.

Sec. 2. The Governor of this State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation, submitting this amendment to the qualified voters of Texas at the next general election held in this State, or in case any previous election shall be held in this State for other purposes, then this proposed amendment shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the State. PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE STATE CONSTITUTION PROVIDING THAT MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF REGENTS OF THE STATE UNIVERSITY AND BOARDS OF TRUSTEES AND MANAGERS OF THE EDUCATIONAL, ELEEMOSYNARY AND PENAL INSTITUTIONS SHALL BE ELECTED OR APPOINTED FOR THE TERM OF SIX YEARS.

(H. J. R. No. 9.) House Joint Resolution.

An Act proposing an amendment to Article 16 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, by adding a new section thereto, to be entitled "Section 30a"; providing that the members of the Board of Regents of the State University, and the boards of trustees or managers of educational, eleemosynary and penal institutions of the State and such other boards as have been, or may hereafter be established by law, may be elected or appointed for term of six (6) years, one-third of the members of said boards to be elected or appointed every two (2) years in the manner provided by law, fixing the time for holding the election, and making the appropriation therefor.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Article 16 of the Constitution be amended by adding a new section thereto, to be known and designated as "30a," and to read as follows:

Section 30a. The Legislature may provide by law that the members of the Board of Regents of the State University and Boards of Trustees or Managers of the educational, eleemosynary, and penal institutions of the State, and such boards as have been, or may hereafter be established by law, may hold their respective offices for the term of six (6) years, one-third of the members of such board to be elected or appointed every two (2) years in such manner as the Legislature may determine; vacancies in such offices to be filled as may be provided by law, and the Legislature shall enact suitable laws to give effect to this section.

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors for the members of the Legislature, at the next general election to be held in this State, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall have printed or written on their ballots: "For the amendment of Article 16 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, regulating the term of office of the Board of Regents of the State University, and other Boards of Trustees, or Managers, heretofore or hereafter established by law." And all voters opposed to said amendment shall have printed or written on their ballots the words: "Against the amendment of Article 16 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, regulating the term of office of the Board of Regents of the State University, and other Board of Trustees, or Managers, heretofore or hereafter established by law."

Sec. 3. The Governor of this State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election, and have the same published, as required by the law of this State.

Australia Would Save Birds.

Strong protest is being made to South Australia against the continual slaughter of such rare birds as the ibis, the egret, cranes and spoonbills to supply the demands of milliners. The slaughter renders South Australia even more prone to plagues of grasshoppers, and is a prime cause of the decline of its fish resources. As the wading birds disappear the crustaceans that destroy fish spawn increase in multitude.

Family Groups.

I know some people who have been indulging in a family group. Which is all right, if they feel that way about it. But where are they going to keep it? I have one down cellar and another under the bed and a third in storage. There was a mistake made in the order, so we each got three apiece. Any one has a right to be in a family group, but no one has a right to show it to his friends.—Exchange.

Makes Unique Home.

In Zaratan, Spain, a case has occurred which is probably unique of its kind. A child has just been born while his father, grandfather, great-grandfather and great-great-grandfather are all living. His name is Urri-ticochea, and the family are Basque farm laborers. The great-grandfather and the great-great-grandfather have acted as godfathers to the latest arrival. The united family constitutes nearly a whole village.

Royal Letters Prized.

Royal letter writers may expect that, in the vicissitudes of the centuries, their popularity will come to the test of that democratic implement, the auctioneer's hammer. Judged by this standard, King Edward III. and Queen Elizabeth have no reason to feel slighted. In London the other day one of the king's letters sold for $1,450, and a letter from Queen Elizabeth to Henry III. of France brought $1,225.

Wants His Back Pay.

A circus employee of Maryville has sued the company for which he formerly worked, asking $55.10 back wages, and in the meantime he has attached the alligator. An alligator is our idea of nothing to get attached to—or to get attached to you.—Kansas City Times.

Keeps Saint's Memory Fresh.

St. Torquatus, the apostle of Cadiz, lived in the first Christian century and planted an olive tree before the church dedicated to him in Cadiz. This tree is always in full bloom on the feast day of Torquatus, May 15.

Kept It in the Family.

"You have a tremendously faithful dog, sir. As you turned to speak just now a strange dog tried to take your seat, and just as he was going to snatch it your own dog eat it up himself."—Flegende Blaetter.

Lacoste Defeats Diversion Dam.

In a very interesting game of ball, played between the Diversion Dam and Lacoste, the latter won by a score of 2 to 1.

The two teams had once before met in battle when the result was an eleven inning tie.

The game was played hot and close from start to finish.

In the first two innings not a man scored, when in the third one run was brought in by the confident Dam team, but only to add to the determination of Lacoste to get down to harder work, and up to the ninth Lacoste scored twice while the other team was doomed beyond a chance to win.

But, however, in the meantime, some very influential Diversion ball promoter tried the usual scheme of forcing the victory for his team through a method which was not only unreasonable but against the late rules of ball. But the trick was a failure, and covered with shame, the team refused to play the last inning in accordance with the rules, which left Lacoste a legal victor.

The batteries for the Dam were Goff and Bennett; Lacoste, Tschirhart and Rihn. Bennett, for the dam, struck out 4 men, allowing 6 hits; while Rihn, the sturdy twirler, carried the record of striking out 13 men in eight innings, allowing only two hits. Two errors were made on each side.

The Lacoste team has lost but one game this season and has the strongest nine in the county. They challenge any team of Medina county to meet them at any time on the Castroville ground.

After the game the team and its rosters left for their homes rejoicing over their victory, only much disappointed by the treatment shown them by the Diversion Dam in return for a very courteous welcome and hospitality shown the dam boys when they played at Castroville. A VISITOR.
